

To produce a piece of creative writing

- Starter: complete at least one of the challenges below:
- Describe walking around a spooky house without using the words 'and', 'but', 'so' or 'then'.
- Write a conversation between two friends after a terrible day at school without using the word 'said'.
- Describe landing on a desert island. Each sentence should start with a different letter of the alphabet. For example, A golden beach lay all around. Birds flew high above my head. Coconuts littered the ground beneath the line of swaying trees...

Outcomes

- Some attempt to use ambitious vocabulary
- Clear use of ambitious vocabulary
- Increasingly sophisticated use of ambitious vocabulary

What is literacy?

- The ability to read and write

Read the passage below

- The dog was small. He had brown eyes and his fur was white and brown. He stepped forward; I could feel his soft silky fur when I stroked him. He smelled damp.

Add the following to improve the paragraph above:

Interesting adjectives

A simile

A metaphor

An adverbial to start a sentence

Alliteration/ onomatopoeia

10 minute writing challenge

You have 10 minutes to write a story based on this picture. You could write about the following:

What the weather is like
Why a bear is in the taxi?
What the car is like?
Where have they been?
Where are they going?

Success Criteria: you need to include the following in your work:

Ambitious adjectives
Adverbials to start sentences
Similes and metaphors
Alliteration and onomatopoeia.

Plenary

Peer or self assess your partners work against the success criteria. Set them a WWW and an EBI from the list below.

Ambitious adjectives

Adverbials to start sentences

Similes and metaphors

Alliteration and onomatopoeia.